- If you are experiencing symptoms, seek medical attention.
- When utilizing our booking system and a message similar to “No times are available for the next 6 months” is received, this equates to reservations for the week are full. Please check daily for open reservations until the issue is resolved.
- Because many services continue to have limited space and some customers continue to be no-shows, we kindly request that if you are unable to attend your reservation, please cancel/reschedule as soon as possible so another customer gets the opportunity to join.
